Transfiguration of Our Lord March 3, 2019

Gathering

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Prelude

"Ratisbon"

setting by Cindy Berry

Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who creates us and forms us,
who redeems us and calls us, who unites us and sends us.

Amen.

Gathered in God's presence, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Mighty and loving God,
we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
We seek our own way.
We divide the body of Christ.
In your mercy, cleanse us and heal us.
Let the words of our mouths,
the thoughts of our hearts, and everything that we do be filled with faith, hope, and love.
Amen.

Hear the voice of Jesus:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me to proclaim release to the captives.”

In the name of ✝ Jesus Christ,

I proclaim to you that your sins are forgiven and you are released.

The joy of the Lord is your strength, and the gifts of the Holy Spirit are yours forever.

Amen.

RATISBON

Greeting

During this time, the presiding minister and the assembly greet each other.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Kyrie

“Lord have mercy”

Gloria

“Glory to God”

ELW p. 121

Prayer of the Day

The presiding minister prays the prayer of the day.

Let us pray.

A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Holy God, mighty and immortal, you are beyond our knowing, yet we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. Transform us into the likeness of your Son, who renewed our humanity so that we may share in his divinity, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

First Reading:

Exodus 34:29-35

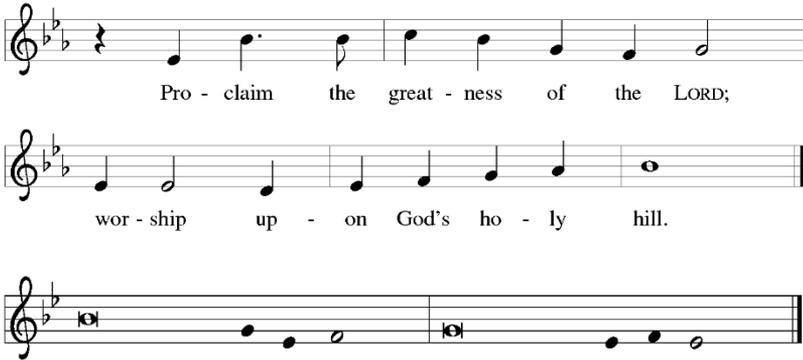

Moses' face shone with the reflected glory of God after he received the ten commandments on Mount Sinai. The sight caused the Israelites to be afraid, so Moses wore a veil to mask the radiance of God's glory, taking it off when he spoke directly with God.

The First Reading is from the 34th chapter of Exodus.

²⁹Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. ³⁰When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. ³²Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. ³³When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; ³⁴but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with the Lord, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, ³⁵the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Pro - claim the great - ness of the LORD;
 wor - ship up - on God's ho - ly hill.

¹The Lord is king; let the | people tremble.

The Lord is enthroned upon the cherubim; let | the earth shake.

²The Lord, | great in Zion,
 is high a- | bove all peoples.

³Let them confess God's name, which is | great and awesome;
 God is the | Holy One.

⁴O mighty king, lover of justice, you have es- | tablished equity;
 you have executed justice and righteous- | ness in Jacob. R

⁵Proclaim the greatness of the Lord and fall down be- | fore God's footstool;
 God is the | Holy One.

⁶Moses and Aaron among your priests, and Samuel among those who call upon your | name, O Lord, they called upon you, and you | answered them,

⁷you spoke to them out of the pil- | lar of cloud;
 they kept your testimonies and the decree | that you gave them.

⁸O Lord our God, you answered | them indeed;
 you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their | evil deeds.

⁹Proclaim the greatness of the Lord and worship upon God's | holy hill;
 for the Lord our God is the | Holy One. R

Second Reading:

2 Corinthians 3:12--4:2

In his debates with the Corinthians, Paul contrasts the glory of Moses with the glory of Christ. The Israelites could not see Moses' face because of the veil. But in Christ we see the unveiled glory of God and are transformed into Christ's likeness.

The Second Reading is from the 3rd chapter of Second Corinthians.

¹²Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, ¹³not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. ¹⁵Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; ¹⁶but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

^{4:1}Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. ²We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

ELW p. 124

The assembly stands to welcome the gospel.

Gospel

Luke 9:28-36 [37-43a]

The conversation about Jesus' suffering and death is enclosed in a dazzling foreshadowing of the resurrection. God affirms Jesus' identity, the disciples are stunned speechless, and Jesus resumes his mission with a demonstration of his power over evil.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke, the ninth chapter Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁸ Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹ And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰ Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to Jesus. ³¹ They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³² Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw the glory of Jesus and the two men who stood with him. ³³ Just as the men were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said. ³⁴ While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” ³⁶ When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

³⁷ On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met Jesus. ³⁸ Just then a man from the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. ³⁹ Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. ⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.” ⁴¹ Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” ⁴² While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ^{43a} And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ

The assembly is seated.

Children's Sermon

We invite our children forward for a lesson before either returning to their seats or heading off to the nursery.

Sermon

Silence for reflection follows the sermon.

The Apostles Creed

Together with the whole church let us confess our faith with the words of the Apostles Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

United as one body in Christ, let us pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence is kept.

Each petition ends:

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

The prayers are concluded:

Receive our prayers and fill us with the radiance of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Peace

The presiding minister and the assembly greet each other in the peace of the risen Christ.

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

The people may greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace, and may say, "Peace be with you," or similar words.

Announcements

Announcements are made on behalf of the community

Offering

An offering is gathered to support the mission of the church. Funds gathered today will help sustain our ministry efforts at St. Mark's, support the wider national church and help those in need. You can also contribute electronically via our "Give+" giving app on your phone, available in the Apple Store and Google Play. If you give electronically we invite you to take one of the green slips and place it in the offering plate as a way to include your electronic gifts in the offering time.

Offertory

Musical selections are offered to the glory of God. The conclusion of which gifts of bread, wine, money and other gifts are brought forward.

Farewell to Alleluia

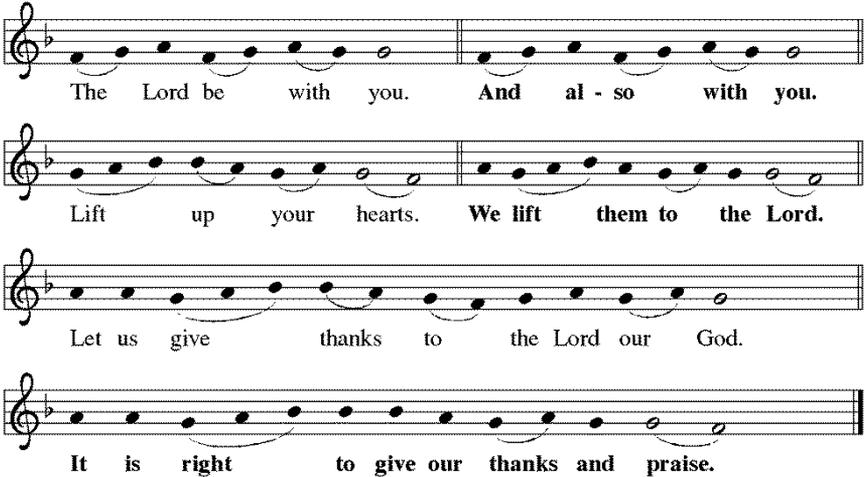

Offering Prayer

God of all creation,
all you have made is good,
and your love endures forever.
You bring forth bread from the earth and fruit from the vine.
Nourish us with these gifts, that we might be for the world signs of your gracious presence in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

ELW pg 129

The presiding minister greets the assembly and invites all present to give thanks

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

“Holy Holy Holy”

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

The Great Thanksgiving concludes:

Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Here at St. Mark’s we invite all people to the Lord’s Table no matter where you are on your faith journey. This is Christ present for you – freely offered in bread and wine – all are welcome to commune.

Come to the table. Feast on God's abundant life for you.

The bread may be broken for the communion

Distribution of Communion

Today we will receive communion around the altar rail. At the direction of the usher you are invited forward to receive communion.

When giving the bread and cup, the communion ministers say:

The body of Christ, given for you.

The blood of Christ, shed for you.

and each person may respond -- Amen.

“Now, Lord Let Your Servant”

Prayer after Communion

We thank you, O God, that you have fed us at your banqueting table with bread and wine beyond compare, the very life of Christ for us.
Send your Spirit with us now, that we may set the captive free,
use your gifts to build one another up,
and in everything reflect your glory revealed in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Sending

God blesses us and send us in mission to the world

Blessing

The God of glory dwell in you richly, name you beloved, and shine brightly on your path;
and the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, the † Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Worship Ministry Announcements:

Ways we gather in praise of God

Ash Wednesday Service This Wednesday - March 6th @ 7pm

Join us as we mark the entry into the season of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Lent begins with a solemn call to repentance as we begin the season of preparation for Holy Week. This service will include the imposition of Ashes (an ancient tradition acknowledging our mortality and need for God's mercy), special music, Holy Communion and time for prayer. Join us as we begin our journey to the cross.

Memorial Service for Ann Beatty

The memorial service for our sister in Christ, Ann Beatty, will be held on Saturday March 16th here at St. Mark's. The family will receive visitors from 10 – 11 with the service beginning at 11am.

Help us purchase more hymnals for the sanctuary

We need some more hymnals to fill the pew racks, and we're inviting members of the congregation to purchase a hymnal to place for use in worship. You're invited to include your dedication (for example, in memory of a loved one, to the Glory of God, for blessings received)--a book plate will be set in the hymnal identifying the giver and dedication. The cost is $25 per book. Place your check or cash in one of the white pew envelopes and label it HYMNAL. On the back of the envelope, write your name and what you'd like to have included in the dedication.

Dinner Church @ 6PM on Thursdays

“Dinner Church” has great roots in the Christian tradition. Meals feature prominently in our great tradition of faith, from pot lucks, to picnics, to the Holy Supper we share in communion – food plays a central role in who we are as Christians. We like to say that we are also “fed” by the experience of worship, so Dinner Church seeks to feed you both spiritually and physically. Dinner Church is a very relaxed worship experience; some come right from work, some right from the gym, some from just picking the kids up. This coming week we'll be looking at a story in Mark 12 where Jesus compares the money contributed by rich people with the offering of a poor widow. The Sign-Up sheet to bring a main dish, soup or salad is in the “sign-up hallway” across from the McCarney room. No matter where you are on your faith journey you are welcome here at Dinner Church.

Altar Flower Sponsorship

We have openings for Altar Flowers in March. Cost is $40.00 for the week and please indicate if you would like to keep this as an annual memorial, or just a memorial for this year.

Faith Formation Ministry Announcements:

Ways you can deep your faith life

Faith Formation Classes after worship

We offer two faith formation opportunities after worship today, a class for young disciples and their families and an adult forum (for disciples young at heart!) Today, both classes meet following worship downstairs in the auditorium, our young persons' class begins following communion and the adult forum starts shortly after the fellowship hour.

Service Ministry Announcements:

Ways you can do God's work with your hands

Pipe Organ Appeal

Our congregation continues to raise funds to repair and rebuild our Pipe Organ. The instrument is in major need of refurbishment and new parts, the cost of which is $53,000. To date we have raised a little over $24,000 for this work with more to go. Please consider making a donation to the Capital Appeal to support this work; we have until June to raise the rest of the funds for this work.

Knitters & Crocheters

We're still collecting 12" knitted or crocheted squares to be assembled into blankets that we'll take to the Coordinated Homeless Outreach Center (CHOC) in Norristown. If you have any questions, please speak to Kathy Pokalo or Karen Hanna.

Cradles to Crayons Donations Discontinued

We want to thank everyone who so faithfully and generously supported Cradles to Crayons over the years helping to provide children birth through age 12 with the everyday essentials they need to thrive at home, at school and at play. Because the organization has closed their Conshohocken location leaving the nearest drop off center in Philadelphia, we will no longer be accepting donations for them here at St. Mark's. If you have questions, please speak to Karen Hanna or Kathy Pokalo.

Items Needed at Our Local Food Bank

Our local food bank run by our friends over at Colonial Neighborhood Council have a special need for Chef Boyardee products and canned fruit. Collection baskets in the back of the sanctuary. Items are delivered to CNC weekly.

Homework Help @ Conshy Library

Our congregation will continue to staff the Homework Help Club at the Conshohocken Public Library. The program is offered on Thursdays from 3:45pm – 4:30pm. If you are interested in helping to tutor, please see or contact Jenn Schreiter (jeschreiter@yahoo.com).

Sharing God's Love with Blessing Bags

Thanks to the many who helped put together 75 “Blessings Bags”. “Blessings Bags” are bags filled with energy & granola bars, and other items that can be eaten right away. In addition, the bags contain dry socks – an especially prized item during the winter months. The bags can be placed in your car, tote or briefcase to distribute to those experiencing homelessness. We have all experienced that strange feeling of embarrassment mixed with guilt when we encounter folks on the streets and these bags are a tangible way to show concern and compassion and give the encouragement that they, too, are both a blessing and blessed by God.

2018 Year-End Giving Statements Available Now

Please pick up your 2018 Year-end Giving Statement and 2019 Offering Boxes in the back of the sanctuary today.

Now is a Good Time to Enroll in Electronic Giving

Now is a great time to enroll in electronic giving to continue your support of our congregation. Regular consistent giving helps us maintain our budget for the year. To sign up – download the “Give+” app on either Apple or Android, search for St. Mark’s in Conshohocken (make sure you get the town, there are a few St. Mark’s churches) and then set up the amount and frequency of the offering; either one time, or on a recurring basis. As always, thank you for all that you do to support the work and ministry of St. Mark’s.

Special Envelope Collection This Month

The Lutheran Settlement House is a multifaceted service organization offering a variety of programs to empower individuals and strengthen communities across the city of Philadelphia. Established in 1902, LSH is a non-profit, community-based organization committed to serving children, adults, and families living in Philadelphia offering a variety of programs such as domestic violence, homelessness, senior services, community education, employment and advocacy. Ways you can share your faith with others

Saint Patrick Day Parade

We are currently looking for volunteers who might be willing to “staff” a table for St. Mark’s at the St. Patrick Day Parade on Saturday March 16th which starts at 2pm. We usually have free pretzels and water to give away at the event and socialize a bit with our neighbors here in Conshohocken. If interested please email the church office info@stmarksconshy.org or speak to Pastor.

Easter Egg Industry Continues

Our annual Easter Egg Candy making fundraiser production continues! Volunteers needed on Monday and Wednesday evening for candy making and chocolate coating as well as Friday mornings to assist with packing. This is St. Mark’s largest fundraiser and we need lots of help to make the 101st year another successful season in the longstanding Conshohocken tradition.

Monday Evenings 6pm – 8pm: Volunteers are needed to help roll / cut fondant centers. We are in special need of folks who can volunteer from 5pm – 7pm in the kitchen to assist with making the candy batches.

Wednesday Evenings 6pm – 8pm: Volunteers are needed to help coat the candies in dark chocolate, each candy is hand coated so we need lots of hands to help coat the candies!

Friday Mornings 9am – 11am: Packers are needed to help pack and weight the candies in boxes.

To place orders: you may order in person during production, fill out an order form (available in the back of the sanctuary) and turn it into the church office, or you may contact our order coordinator Donna Kobi 610.825.3021, or you may place an order using our website (www.stmarksconshy.org)

New to St. Mark's?

Are you new to St. Mark's? Would you like to find out more about becoming a member? Are you a new member who would like to know more about becoming more involved? Please speak with Pastor Bryan we are so glad you are here and want to help support your walk of faith!

Council Corner:

News from the leadership of the Congregation

Newly Elected Council Officers & Ministry Leads for 2019

Each year from our elected Council members, the group elects executive officers and appoints ministry leads over our key ministry areas. At a recent Council meeting the following people were elected as executive officers of the church council:

- President: Kathy Pokalo
- Vice-President: Joe Ruggiero
- Treasurer: Aaron Moul
- Secretary: Liz MacNeal

And those appointed to serve our “key ministry” areas:

- Faith Formation: Stef Conklin
- Worship: Becca Casey
- Service: Brooke Logan
- Evangelism and Fellowship: Brooke Kenna

Please help congratulate these Council members and thank them for their willingness to serve this year. But more importantly, pray for them and help support them as they continue to move our ministry forward on behalf of the whole congregation. Members of the congregation are invited to attend meetings. Upcoming dates are March 19, April 16, May 21, June 11; meetings begin at 7:30 pm.

Connect with us online

Are you a “fan” of the St. Mark’s Facebook page? Did you like the photo we posted on Instagram? Did you know we could be trending on Twitter? St. Mark’s offers a variety of ways to connect virtually beyond our worship services. Check out our online presence, share our messages with friends and family as we seek to spread God’s love with those who need to see the greatness of God’s grace!

Welcome to St. Mark's, We're so glad you are with us today!

No matter where you are on your spiritual journey, you have a place here. This is Christ's Church. There is a place for you here. We are a church that shares a living and daring confidence in God's grace. Liberated by our faith, we embrace you as a whole person - questions, complexities and all. Join us as we do God's work in Christ's name for the life of the world.

Children are always welcome to participate in worship. To help our youngest worshippers, "Little Lutheran Activity Bags" are located in the rear of the sanctuary which have crayons and worship appropriate coloring pages. We offer a "Soft Space" for infants and toddlers to spread out a bit in during worship. Worshiping with children is important to us, and so we hope you find these things helpful so that you may worship together as a family.

Restrooms are located through the back left – exit the sanctuary, go up the stairs, through the first room to the end of the hallway. If you need assistance, please see the attendants (ushers) at the back of the sanctuary.

Cell phones and other electronic devices are welcome to be used to Post, Tweet and Instagram the "Good News" you hear today, but we kindly ask you to turn the sound off on them so that they do not cause a distraction to other worshippers.

Our team of ushers is available throughout the service to be of any assistance you might need. Assistive Listening devices are available. Please see an usher.

Are you new or visiting St. Mark's? If you would like to receive more information about St. Mark's, we have several methods where you can leave your information with us: Visitor books at the entrance to the sanctuary Yellow Visitor Cards in the pew backs, just drop them in the offering plate We would be delighted to keep you informed about the many events and opportunities here at St. Mark's and hope you will join us again.
